

ZULLO GALLERY CENTER FOR THE ARTS
Winter Art Classes - adults

March-April 2017

Basic Photography Wednesday mornings 9:30-12 March 22–April 5

Learning how to use your digital camera can be a daunting task. Basic Photography class, taught by instructor Carol Wontkowski will begin to shed light on important aspects of the camera in addition to two major factors in creating good photographs: Composition and Lighting. The first session will cover some camera settings that are vital to getting started in addition to information about your image files. The second session on Composition will cover a variety of factors influencing the making of a good photograph. The last session on Lighting will present different lighting sources and some of their uses. Each session will offer time to practice information that was covered in that day's class.

Maximum students:12

the instructor:

Carol began her career in commercial photography, moved into freelance and in the last ten years has exhibited throughout New England, in New York, South Carolina, Florida, and California.
